BEAVER BULLET IS OUT OF RACE

EL PASO, Nov. 7.—Stricken with inflammation of the sciatic nerve in his left leg, Charles F Keene, owner and driver of the famous Beaver Bullet, that finished eighth in the 500 mile sweepstakes at Indianapolis, Memorial day, was compelled to retire to his bed Thursday afternoon, upon the advice of his physician, and his car was withdrawn from the El Paso-Phoenix race.
Mr Keene was informed Thursday that it would be impossible for him to pilot his powerful 220 horse power racing car in the desert race. He then sent his withdrawal to Robert H Rinehart referee of the big event.
News of Keene's illness was received by officials, race drivers and mechanics in the big desert race with regret. Many drivers and mechanics called upon him at his rooms Thursday evening to express their sympathy.
Keene has arranged to have his powerful car stabled at a local garage until the El Paso-San Diego race is run.
He will return to his home at Beaver Falls as soon as he is able and will remain there until December 15, when he will again come to El Paso to make a trial run over the course to San Diego. The Beaver Bullet will be one of the entrants in this event.

SEE the big window display of new winter blankets and comforters at Rock's. Just arrived, and just the thing for these cold nights. —Adv

LOOKING BACKWARD TWENTY-FOUR YEARS

Interesting Items That Appeared In the "Prospector" Twenty-four Years Ago
--Brings Back "The Days of Old"

FROM OUR FILES OF THIS DATE, 1890

You cannot blind the voters with the glare of sky rockets and red fire, neither can you close their ears with the noise of anvils.

The world was not made in a day, neither are the principles of Washington's time to be destroyed in a night.

They have sown the wind and will reap the whirlwind, even unto a Democratic cyclone.

Joe Lewis and a man named Hatch were killed in Apache county last Tuesday. Great excitement prevails and the sheriff's posse is on the trail of the murderers.

Mr Cheyney has returned to his duties as Superintendent of public instruction just as naturally as a duck to water.

Some yahoo who has less brains than the ordinary run of mankind writes to the Prospector under the nom de plume of "Justice," but does not give his name, and wants to know the amount of shortage there was in the accounts of the treasurer of the Republican Central Committee.
Thinking that others with dull comprehension may think that the remarks of a gentleman published in the Prospector last Saturday intimated that there was a shortage and in justice to him we wish to say that the language used was not intended to reflect upon the honesty of the treasurer, but in the sense of not being sufficient to go round, as all but some thick-skulled individuals took it to mean.

JEWELRY AGENCY FOR TOMBSTONE

Mr C H Howe of the Howe Jewelry Company at Bisbee was a visitor in the county seat today on business connected with his firm. Mr Howe while here has established an agency with the Rock store, where all pairing jewelry and watches wanted by the Tombstone public can be let, as well as orders for anything in the jewelry line. The Howe Jewelry Co. carries on the highest grade of jewelry diamonds etc., and their ad appears in these columns beginning with today.

SPECIAL TRAIN TO FOLLOW THE AUTO RACERS

DOUGLAS, Nov. 7.—Train No. 3, which leaves El Paso Sunday, will bring with it a special Pullman coach filled with friends and backers of the various racers who are making the test over the El Paso to Phoenix race course. The train will bring the people through here on Sunday night.
They will reach Phoenix several hours before the winning car crosses the tape at the fair grounds and will thus obtain the unusual privilege of having been able to witness both the start and finish of the race. Besides this, there will be several places along the railroad where the racers can be seen in action.

News of the State In Condensed Form

Drilling for Fair
The Hospital corps of the University of Arizona are busily drilling for the coming competition which will take place at the state fair next week.

Sent To The Pen Bertram Carroll, a porter for the Al Barnes circus, was sentenced to an indeterminate term of from one to ten years in the state penitentiary Thursday by Judge Cooper of the superior court of Tucson. He pleaded guilty.
Carroll stole two suit cases from the car of which he had charge. He was employed in Texas.

Polo for the Fair Secretary T D Shaugnessy of the state fair is in communication with the auto polo squad which has been making sport history in the middle west this season, and there is a strong possibility of having the outfit here for the big fall festival.

Good for Tucson There is a plan on foot to close the business houses of Tucson on Monday between ten and twelve while the automobile racers are passing through Tucson.

Found in Starving Condition In a starving condition, Dorothy, the six year-old daughter of Mr and Mrs Frank Fenderson of Canille was found wandering in the Huachuca mountains by a searching party composed of troopers from Fort Huachuca and returned to her parents. "I'm hungry," wailed the little girl when she was first found and upon being given food she "wailed like a famished thing." She had been for two and a half days without anything to eat.

Over from Bisbee
Attorney S K Williams of Bisbee arrived in the city today on matters before the superior court. He came overland via auto.
